

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

County Clerk Gardner has notified the registrars that registration for the coming bond election will close next Saturday, August 23. Registration will be resumed after the election. There will be no swearing in of voters on election day, the new law pertaining to elections specifically prohibiting this.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carkin, Wednesday, August 20, a tea pound boy.

William Ulrich, administrator of the estate of J. D. McArdle deceased, will sell at public auction, all of the jewelry of said deceased, including one diamond ring, Saturday, August 23d, 1913, at 2:30 p.m. at the old Cuthbert stand on the corner north from the post office. Terms cash.

Mrs. W. E. Kentner of Jacksonville visited in Medford Wednesday afternoon.

Fred W. Mears made a professional trip to Jacksonville Wednesday.

New satin hats. Ahrens.

Mrs. L. Wimer went to Ashland Wednesday on a visit with relatives.

Frank Swindle and party of Ashlanders motored to Medford Wednesday afternoon.

New fall suits and coats. Ahrens.

J. M. Pichet and his family have returned from a trip to Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Soiss drove over from Eagle Point Wednesday.

Home-made bread at De Voe's.

E. Conger and A. Gangwisch were over from Jacksonville Wednesday afternoon.

C. M. Ruch and H. H. Taylor of Applegate made a business trip to Medford Wednesday.

William Ulrich, administrator of the estate of J. D. McArdle, deceased, will sell at public auction, all of the jewelry of said deceased, including one diamond ring, Saturday, August 23d, 1913, at 2:30 p.m. at the old Cuthbert stand on the corner north from the post office. Terms cash.

Ed Bestwick of the West Side stable went to Applegate Wednesday returning in the evening.

George A. Morse and J. W. Bailey of Talent district spent a few hours in Medford Wednesday.

Home of La Grecque corsets. Ahrens.

B. L. Dodge, who is spending the summer at his big orchard on Rogue river, came to Medford Wednesday.

W. W. Gregory of Big Sticky and W. A. Morris of Rock Point transacted business in Medford Wednesday.

Producers Fruit Co. has just received a large shipment of 1 lb. and ½ lb. top berry baskets, and can fill orders in any quantity. We also have on hand a large supply of the celebrated "Security" orchard ladders in all sizes.

Mrs. N. P. Lee and Mrs. E. LaMar and Miss Flora Gray, who have been camping at Coleslin, are in Medford again.

W. L. Moulton and R. J. Finney of Sacramento and L. L. Anderson of Carson are late arrivals in Medford.

Kaboo front lace corsets, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.50. Ahrens.

H. A. Sline and William Scheble were recent business visitors at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson of Central Point district were of the many who came to Medford Wednesday.

Drs. A. R. and Louise E. Hedges, chiropractors and mechanotherapists are now located over Deuel & Co. Phone 176.

T. J. Neff and John X. Miller, well known pioneers, were among Medford friends Wednesday.

A. L. Penwell, a former resident of Medford, who resides in the Willamette valley, is visiting his son, Plumber Penwell.

Lingerie dresses one-half price. Ahrens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Fiero of Central Point district motored to Medford Wednesday.

J. O. Grey and his sons have gone to Big Butte to hunt and fish a few weeks.

Kodak finishing, best in town, at Weston's.

Miss Fern Hutchison left for Portland Wednesday evening to be present at the wedding of a friend.

Mrs. John J. White arrived from Berkeley, Cal., Wednesday evening and will remain in Medford some time.

Gotham gold stripe silk hose, the best on the market, $1.00. Ahrens.

Miss Lima Jorgenson, who has been employed in a wholesale millinery house at San Francisco, is in Medford again.

E. M. McKeany, representative of the Pioneer Fruit company in southern Oregon, left for Portland Wednesday evening, to meet W. B. Dennis, well known commission merchant of London, England.

E. D. Thompson, E. P. Chandler and J. F. McCord of Rogue river were recent business visitors in Medford.

Owen Dunlap has assumed the management of the business of Ritter & Dunlap and removed from Phoenix to Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins have gone to Roseburg to visit relatives and friends.

For sale, a few shares of stock of Rogue River Fruit and Produce association. Address or call at 717 North Riverside, Medford. 130.

Guy Thrasher and Raymond Fish were of those from Phoenix who transacted business in Medford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan have started for Big Butte where they will camp for a few weeks.

It is not extravagant to wear silk hose when you buy the Gotham gold stripe, $1.00 a pair. Ahrens.

Uriah Gordon has begun the construction of a school house which will accommodate the needs of Payton district, on upper Rogue river. 152.

Mrs. A. A. Davis and her niece, Miss Hale, made a trip to Ashland Wednesday afternoon.

Gebhardt Huber of Grants Pass spent Tuesday at Medford, his former home.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, H. C. Hinshaw, traveling freight agent, and W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, are down from Portland. They spent Wednesday night in Medford.

Hop picking will begin in Josephine county in a few days and a thousand pickers will be employed three weeks in gathering the crop, which is a good one. Flanagan & Cornell have 100 acres and Leonard & company 50 acres in hops and expect five bales to the acre.

Fruit tree props Medford Lbr. Co.

The secret of agriculture has notified District Forester Dubois of the approval of the sale of 2,000,000.00 feet of timber in the Klamath national forest lying between Hornbrook and Happ Camp, Cal. The sale depends upon the construction of 72 miles of railroad to lap the main line of the Southern Pacific.

The city council has ordered the paving of Dakota, Vancouver and Jay streets and also ordered a sewer constructed at the end of the paving on South Central.

S. S. Smith, who has been camping with his family at Coleslin for a few days, returned Wednesday evening.

E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone 1471.

Mrs. W. L. Ussher has gone to Ashland to join her husband, who is manager of the Pacific Telephone company at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walther are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Folger of Oakland, Cal., at their home in Siskiyou Heights.

The finest studio in southern Oregon has been opened by Gerking & Harmon at 223 East Main street, first stairway east of Star theater. Our work is always the best, views of all kinds for sale. The best of kodak finishing. Negatives made any time or place. Phone 320-J. 67.

Mrs. D. Campbell, who has been visiting in Medford has joined her husband at Marshfield. She was accompanied thither by her sister, Mrs. J. D. Bell.

H. Wolf of Applegate, and H. Howard of Palmer camp were among Medford's business visitors Wednesday.

Screen doors Medford Lbr. Co. • George Andrews and R. W. Hitchcock, the horticulturist, tarried in Medford Wednesday.

G. H. Elridge, who looks after the weighing department of the Southern Pacific, is in Medford.

"Insurance your best asset." Have the best. Place your insurance with Holmes, the Insurance Man, right if he writes it.

Hugh McGuire of Portland, one of the founders of the Pacific Paper company, passed through Medford Wednesday en route from San Francisco.

A. Grissom of Climax and J. L. Wilson of Griffin creek came to Medford the fore part of the week.

The Amona Bible class of the Baptist church will hold a food sale at public market, Saturday, August 23.

The case of Attorney Charles B. Harris of Sacramento, charged with conspiring with Diggs to persuade Neil Barton to commit subornation of perjury in getting Marsha Warrington to testify falsely at the trial is scheduled to start August 26.

In excusing the general jury panel today until next Tuesday, Judge Van Fleet strictly admonished the tamen men that they were in no wise to discuss the pending Camineti and Charles B. Harris cases either before or after the impanelment of the juries for those trials.

"No one has a right to approach any man on the general panel," declared the court. "And I mean women as well as men. Let no woman talk with you, either."

E. M. McKeany, representative of the Pioneer Fruit company in southern Oregon, left for Portland Wednesday evening, to meet W. B. Dennis, well known commission merchant of London, England.

E. D. Thompson, E. P. Chandler and J. F. McCord of Rogue river were recent business visitors in Medford.

C. W. Wilmeroth, who represents a New York commission house, is in the valley to contract for fruit shipments.

Mesdames C. P. Buck, W. M. Kinion, W. R. Carlton and several other members of the local W. C. T. U. attended the annual convention held at Phoenix Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins have gone to Roseburg to visit relatives and friends.

County Clerk Gardner has notified the registrars that registration for the coming bond election will close next Saturday, August 23. Registration will be resumed after the election.

There will be no swearing in of voters on election day, the new law pertaining to elections specifically prohibiting this.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan have started for Big Butte where they will camp for a few weeks.

It is not extravagant to wear silk hose when you buy the Gotham gold stripe, $1.00 a pair. Ahrens.

Uriah Gordon has begun the construction of a school house which will accommodate the needs of Payton district, on upper Rogue river. 152.

Mrs. A. A. Davis and her niece, Miss Hale, made a trip to Ashland Wednesday afternoon.

Gebhardt Huber of Grants Pass spent Tuesday at Medford, his former home.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, H. C. Hinshaw, traveling freight agent, and W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, are down from Portland. They spent Wednesday night in Medford.

Hop picking will begin in Josephine county in a few days and a thousand pickers will be employed three weeks in gathering the crop, which is a good one. Flanagan & Cornell have 100 acres and Leonard & company 50 acres in hops and expect five bales to the acre.

Fruit tree props Medford Lbr. Co.

The secret of agriculture has notified District Forester Dubois of the approval of the sale of 2,000,000.00 feet of timber in the Klamath national forest lying between Hornbrook and Happ Camp, Cal. The sale depends upon the construction of 72 miles of railroad to lap the main line of the Southern Pacific.

The city council has ordered the paving of Dakota, Vancouver and Jay streets and also ordered a sewer constructed at the end of the paving on South Central.

S. S. Smith, who has been camping with his family at Coleslin for a few days, returned Wednesday evening.

E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone 1471.

Mrs. W. L. Ussher has gone to Ashland to join her husband, who is manager of the Pacific Telephone company at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walther are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Folger of Oakland, Cal., at their home in Siskiyou Heights.

The finest studio in southern Oregon has been opened by Gerking & Harmon at 223 East Main street, first stairway east of Star theater. Our work is always the best, views of all kinds for sale. The best of kodak finishing. Negatives made any time or place. Phone 320-J. 67.

Mrs. D. Campbell, who has been visiting in Medford has joined her husband at Marshfield. She was accompanied thither by her sister, Mrs. J. D. Bell.

H. Wolf of Applegate, and H. Howard of Palmer camp were among Medford's business visitors Wednesday.

Screen doors Medford Lbr. Co. •

George Andrews and R. W. Hitchcock, the horticulturist, tarried in Medford Wednesday.

G. H. Elridge, who looks after the weighing department of the Southern Pacific, is in Medford.

"Insurance your best asset." Have the best. Place your insurance with Holmes, the Insurance Man, right if he writes it.

Hugh McGuire of Portland, one of the founders of the Pacific Paper company, passed through Medford Wednesday en route from San Francisco.

A. Grissom of Climax and J. L. Wilson of Griffin creek came to Medford the fore part of the week.

The Amona Bible class of the Baptist church will hold a food sale at public market, Saturday, August 23.

The case of Attorney Charles B. Harris of Sacramento, charged with conspiring with Diggs to persuade Neil Barton to commit subornation of perjury in getting Marsha Warrington to testify falsely at the trial is scheduled to start August 26.

In excusing the general jury panel today until next Tuesday, Judge Van Fleet strictly admonished the tamen men that they were in no wise to discuss the pending Camineti and Charles B. Harris cases either before or after the impanelment of the juries for those trials.

"No one has a right to approach any man on the general panel," declared the court. "And I mean women as well as men. Let no woman talk with you, either."

E. M. McKeany, representative of the Pioneer Fruit company in southern Oregon, left for Portland Wednesday evening, to meet W. B. Dennis, well known commission merchant of London, England.

E. D. Thompson, E. P. Chandler and J. F. McCord of Rogue river were recent business visitors in Medford.

County Clerk Gardner has notified the registrars that registration for the coming bond election will close next Saturday, August 23. Registration will be resumed after the election.

There will be no swearing in of voters on election day, the new law pertaining to elections specifically prohibiting this.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan have started for Big Butte where they will camp for a few weeks.

It is not extravagant to wear silk hose when you buy the Gotham gold stripe, $1.00 a pair. Ahrens.

Uriah Gordon has begun the construction of a school house which will accommodate the needs of Payton district, on upper Rogue river. 152.

Mrs. A. A. Davis and her niece, Miss Hale, made a trip to Ashland Wednesday afternoon.

Gebhardt Huber of Grants Pass spent Tuesday at Medford, his former home.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, H. C. Hinshaw, traveling freight agent, and W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, are down from Portland. They spent Wednesday night in Medford.

Hop picking will begin in Josephine county in a few days and a thousand pickers will be employed three weeks in gathering the crop, which is a good one. Flanagan & Cornell have 100 acres and Leonard & company 50 acres in hops and expect five bales to the acre.

Fruit tree props Medford Lbr. Co.

The secret of agriculture has notified District Forester Dubois of the approval of the sale of 2,000,000.00 feet of timber in the Klamath national forest lying between Hornbrook and Happ Camp, Cal. The sale depends upon the construction of 72 miles of railroad to lap the main line of the Southern Pacific.

The city council has ordered the paving of Dakota, Vancouver and Jay streets and also ordered a sewer constructed at the end of the paving on South Central.

S. S. Smith, who has been camping with his family at Coleslin for a few days, returned Wednesday evening.

E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone 1471.